• Projectionscentral.com and careerclusters.org: Be a smart consumer! (Job availability and career information)
• Explore Careers related to your interests and abilities: http://bradford.kusd.edu/
  ➔ Go to Career/Colleges and click on WISCareers (Registration code bhs-C806)
  ➔ Helps students search for careers and colleges by leading students through a journey of “Who am I”, “Where am I going” to “How do I get there” and much more.

• All grades count!
• If you failed a course needed for graduation – SIGN UP FOR SUMMER SCHOOL. You will be a reclassified as a sophomore if you don’t have a minimum of 11 credits by the end of summer.
  ➔ Forms can be found in the Office of Student Leadership
  ➔ If you make up the SAME class, YOU can request in room 151 to have your GPA recalculated; this will help your rank.

✓ If college is in your future - you will need to be aware of college requirements such as classes, rank, and ACT/SAT scores. PLAN TO TAKE THE ACT/SAT IN THE SPRING OR SUMMER OF YOUR JUNIOR YEAR! Take advantage of practice tests/preparation sophomore year.
  o Actstudent.org #501-005 (ACT); Collegeboard.com (SAT) o Test Prep: www.gocollege.com o Test Prep: Old ACT booklet available in my office
• Test Prep: ACT and PSAT prep tests offered in the fall at Bradford; listen for announcements
• Options for next year:
  ➔ Youth Options: (fall semester – due by March 1; spring semester – due by October 1. Visit www.kusd.edu and search “Youth Options” for forms and listings of classes. Forms must be turned into the counselor by deadline.
  ➔ Releases; must enter next school year with 14 credits.

• Scholarships: It’s not too early to start looking o Fastweb.com (free scholarship search) o Plan Ahead: Visit the Bradford Website at www.kusd.edu and go to Our Schools – Bradford – Scholarships- Available Scholarships
  o Local Paper, place of employment
• Get Involved Work on leadership skills
  o Get involved in community service activities; I have a hand-out of suggestions.
  o Join a Bradford sport or club-there are many to choose from; see me for a listing.