Carnevale/Mardis Gras... Buon Carnevale from the Bradford Italian students they have made masks to celebrate this event that has its' history in Venice of the late 1300's when a masquerade ball during the season of lent, meant that a person from any social class of the day, could be seen with any other... and the rules of status were thrown out the window. How grand! All students should come to the library to vote for your favorite mask and get a Carnevale surprise.

Gateway's 4th Annual National Letter of Intent Signing Day... High school seniors, who have declared their intent to become a Gateway Red Hawk for the fall 2018 semester, and their families, are invited for a brief program and reception to follow.
